*I have found the one
my soul loves*

Song of Solomon 3:4

Let me be her fortress, in the face of every storm;
Let me in a calloused world, be sensitive and warm;
Let me be her hero, when all others let her down;
Let me be her leader, when there's weakness all around.

*Let me be his sunshine, when the skies are dark and gray;
Let me be his comfort, when he's had a long, hard day;
Let me be his shelter, when the wind is harsh and cold;
Let me be submissive, when the rest on earth are bold.*

Let me be her pillar, when she needs somewhere to lean;
Let me be committed, with a heart that's true and clean;
Let me be attentive, when there's something on her mind;
Let me lead her wisely, when an answer's hard to find.

*Let me be his pillow, when He's tired and needs a rest.
Let me be assuring, when he faces some hard task;
Let me listen closely, when the world is pressing in;
Let me understand when, no one else can comprehend.*

Let me leave the pressures, of the day outside my door;
Let me be unselfish, always willing to get poor;
Let my love for her be real, each moment all the time;
Lord make me worthy, of the hand I hold in mine.

*Let me walk beside him, when he needs to have a friend.
Let me be something real, in a world of false pretend;
Let me sing sweet music, when his heart's without a song;
Let me be his loving joy, each moment all along.*

*With God as our Witness, we,
Mr. & Mrs. Larry Lehman along with Mr. & Mrs. John Miller, request the honor of your presence at the marriage of our children*

Love knows no limit to its endurance;
no end to its trust; no fading of its hope.
Love alone will stand when all else has fallen.

With grateful hearts, we
